

DESERT HARBOR—A 55+ COMMUNITY—APACHE JUNCTION, AZ—JULY 2018

A Bit of History by Connie Riter

If you don't like history, you may want to skip over this article this month because it is on the history of the celebrations surrounding July 4th. During the American Revolution, the legal separation of the thirteen colonies from Great Britain occurred on July 2, 1776 when the Second Continental Congress approved a resolution of independence that had been proposed in June by Richard Henry Lee of Virginia declaring the US independent from Great Britain. After voting for independence, Congress turned its attention to the Declaration of Independence, a statement explaining this decision, which had been prepared by a committee of five, with Thomas Jefferson as its principal author. Congress debated and revised the wording of the Declaration, finally approving it on July 4th.

A day earlier, John Adams had written to his wife Abigail: "The second day of July, 1776, will be the most memorable epoch in the history of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forever more."

From the outset, Americans celebrated independence on July 4, the date shown on the much-publicized Declaration of Independence, rather than on July 2, the date the resolution of independence was approved in a closed session of Congress. Historians have long disputed whether Congress actually signed the Declaration of Independence on July 4th. Most have concluded that it was signed nearly a month after its adoption, on August 2, 1776.

In a remarkable coincidence, both John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, both signers of the Declaration to later serve as Presidents died on the 50th anniversary of the signing -- July 4, 1826. In 1777, 13 gunshots were fired in commemoration in Rhode Island. Philadelphia celebrated the first anniversary in a way similar to the way it is celebrated today -- with fireworks, speeches, parades, music, prayers, and toasts. In 1778 General George Washington marked the 4th of July by giving his soldiers a double ration of rum and an artillery salute. Over the years, the political importance of the holiday may have declined, but Independence Day remains an important national holiday and a symbol of patriotism. However you celebrate it, find some way to make this a special day, and to think of all the freedoms we enjoy here in the United States of America.

From the President's Desk—Dave Borchardt

Well, July is here and the year is half over. Where does the time go? If you are leaving town for a while like we are, have a wonderful and safe trip. We all look forward to having everyone back for this fall and winter season.

We are in the planning stages for this fall and winter events, activities and entertainment and if anyone has any ideas please let any board member know. Your entire board is the entertainment committee so let us know.

Please, when you do sign up for an event be sure to show up.

We also need host and hostesses for the pot lucks this fall and winter.

And we will be needing a committee to plan our Halloween Party as well as our New Year's Eve Party.

Lastly, because most of our newsletter committee will be gone in July, we will not have a newsletter for August but we will publish the Birthdays & Anniversaries.

DESERT HARBOR TELEPHONE AND E-MAIL DIRECTORY

As you know our telephone and e-mail directory will only be printed once a year usually in December and because we have many additions and corrections we are now sending the directory in a pdf format so everyone can not only read it but they can print it as well.

If you don't see your name, phone number or e-mail address in the directory, please let us know and we will add you. And if you see a correction that needs to be made, let us know about that as well.

We have had a couple emergency water shut offs recently and the only way to get out the message quickly is to send it by e-mail so it's pretty important that we have it on file.

You can send any updates or corrections to: desertharboraz@aol.com

OUR SUMMER ICE CREAM SOCIAL

by Connie Riter

On June 14th at 5 pm over 40 residents met at the Clubhouse for our annual “ice cream social.” We had 2 containers of vanilla and 1 of Neapolitan which were scooped into dishes. Then residents went to another table where all the fixings were available. These included all kinds of syrups, fresh strawberries, bananas, whipped cream, cherries, nuts, and small candies. After fixing the “sundae of their choice” people went to visit with friends and enjoy their dessert. Some people even had room for another sundae! Everything goes better with ice cream!

Wood Carving Comes to Desert Harbor

by Jerry Dilley

Picture it! The year is 1971; a 29 year old man sits in the basement with a recently purchased set of carving knives. Maybe it was a latent desire to whittle like his Boy Scout leader at Camp Sequoia in the 1950's that possessed him to spend the $1. In his scrap box he found a 4" x 5" piece of pine with paint splatters on one side that would work. But, what to carve? He thought back to his younger years, two older siblings and he (12, 10 & 8) were responsible for the family garden. Many things grew there, mostly he remembered the weeds, gasoline drenched potato beetles and the three preteens sweating under droopy cowboy hats. Maybe that would work as a carving idea. How about the hours that were consumed playing "Cowboys and Indians"—that could work as well. From those thoughts he carved a relief of a cowboy with a droopy hat from the "good old days". That cowboy hung on our wall for 40 years—who would have thought he would end up in Arizona. In 2011 I did my second carving and Judith her first. We have been carving for seven years. Judith's first carving was a jointed Yakama doll and I did an Indian war pony—both earned blue ribbons and we were hooked. We have attained expert status and would like to pass some of our knowledge to park members.

Come see what we do that we didn't know we could. Learning and practicing the techniques, being patient and enjoying the social time (and maybe a donut or two)—I believe you could find it all very rewarding. It is the best feeling in the world to give a piece of your art work to your kids, grandkids or friends. They turn your carving over and your name is on the back. How cool is that!

A ninety four year old great grandmother in our Washington carving group told us early on that "if you can peel a potato, you can carve wood." Come see what you can do that you don't know you can. Come carve with us on Fridays @ 10:00am in the craft room.

Babbo's Out of Park Luncheon

by Bea Goudeseune

Babbo's!! Ladies Out of Park Luncheon was once again "over the top!" Our waitress, "Wendy" was so gracious serving 16 women choosing so many delicious meals from Chicken Parmesan, Spaghetti and Meatballs, Appetizers, and many huge delicious salads. I do believe all 16 left with full tummies and would highly recommend the quality and freshness of Babbo's food.

I ask if you would like to partake in a little Chitter Chatter, please join us next month at Red, White, and Brew on the 17th of July. Signup sheet in the Clubhouse.

SUMMER RECIPE

Layered Salad by M. Drouin

Prepare: Layer chopped iceberg lettuce with shredded carrots, sliced cukes, chopped celery, red onion, and thawed frozen peas in a pretty glass trifle or serving bowl. Then spread on a layer of homemade herb-packed dressing. Top the dressing layer with a generous sprinkling of shredded cheese and crispy crumpled bacon.

Dressing: One cup of mayo, 1/4 cup of whole milk, 1/4 cup of chopped parsley, 1 tbl. of chopped fresh chives, 1 1/2 tsp. of dried dill weed, 1/4 tsp. pepper, and 1/8 tsp. salt.

MOVIE REVIEW

Book Club by Barb Nienkark

Book Club is a love story for women – and men – of all ages. It's also about an enduring friendship between four women played by award winning actresses Diane Keaton, Jane Fonda, Candice Bergen and Mary Steenburgen. They read and critique books over a glass or two of wine and the latest book to be discussed is one in the Fifty Shades of Gray Trilogy. Let's just say they have learned a lot from the book – most of it eye opening! The movie will make you laugh out loud and maybe even shed a tear or two, but it should definitely be on your "must see" list.

SWIMMING POOL RULES

Recently a group of teenage boys were in the outside pool around 3 pm in the afternoon. They were jumping off the ledge into the water (which is not allowed) and one of the boys was in the water in his street clothes. This is definitely against the rules! If you have company, please have them observe the rules in the Park and please accompany them down to the pool area. All visitors should be accompanied down to the Clubhouse and pool areas. Thank you!

A 90th Birthday Bash for resident Bev Norman

by Barb Nienkark

Bev Norman has been a resident of Desert Harbor for about 10 years and in that time she has made many friends who affectionately call her “little Bev.” She always has a smile and a twinkle in her eye for everyone she meets and greets on her daily walks or at an activity in the clubhouse. She especially enjoys water aerobics, bingo, pot lucks, and the ladies lunch in and out of the park.

Bev’s son, Dick, and his wife Louise hosted a birthday luncheon in the clubhouse with about 45 fellow residents in attendance. Sandwiches, snacks, and a beverage were served along with a beautifully decorated cake and ice cream. There were many flowers and cards for Bev and I’m sure it was an afternoon that she will long remember.

WATER VOLLEYBALL Sun Communities Sponsored Event

New Activity at Desert Harbor by Paula Barker

- Show up
- Wear a swimsuit
- Choose your position (short on one side, taller on the other)

Did you say you were looking for a way to enjoy the heat? In the water takes the cake! (Oh please bring cake to share! Just kidding, maybe.)

This adventure knows no rules! At least not the rules in a conventional sense. You can have as many players on each side as show up. You can have more than 3 tries. No score is kept. (we are all winners just showing up) The boundaries for play are an illusion.

Now granted, it is a little premature to join the circuit, but boy do we have fun!

Have you guessed what the newest activity added to the Desert Harbor calendar is?

Recycled Card Program by Connie Riter

For years I have been collecting used greeting cards and sending them to Nevada because they were the only ones who would take them, at my own expense.

I have decided not to continue to do this.

Here is the address should you want to send your own cards to St. Jude's, but if you have unused cards --- with envelopes, I would suggest you give them to Goodwill, the Salvation Army, or to St. Vincent de Paul's.
